

RAG Rating for Induction of Labour

| RED To be commenced within 24 hours | AMBER To be commenced within 24-48 hours | GREEN To be commenced within 72 hours |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 42+ weeks gestation• Reduced fetal movements with risk factors• PET• APH at term• Type I / II diabetes• GDM with poor glycaemic control• Severe polyhydramnios• Obstetric cholestasis (BA >100)• PPROM at term• PPROM preterm with other risk factors• Rhesus iso immunisation• Current stillbirth• Previous stillbirth with known recurrent cause• SGA below 10th centile with abnormal dopplers• MCDA Twins• Significant mental health condition• Major fetal abnormality decision for IOL made by fetal medicine specialist• Any previously amber IOL that has not commenced within 48 hours• Any previously green IOL that has not commenced within 72 hours | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Postdates 40+12• Reduced fetal movements without other risk factors• GDM with good glycaemic control• Obstetric cholestasis (BA >41-99)• PIH• Reduced growth velocity, normal dopplers• Low PAPP-A with placental insufficiency/FGR/SGA.• SGA below 10th centile with normal dopplers• Previous stillbirth without known recurrent cause• DCDA twins• Any previously green IOL that has not commenced within 48 hours | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Postdates 40+10• Obstetric cholestasis (BA <40)• Maternal request• Maternal age• IVF with no other risk factors• LGA without diabetes• VBAC with no other risk factors• Raised BMI with no other risk factors |